Mandatory Provisions Article 22

Article 30 The Company must prepare a balance sheet and an inventory of assets when it reduces its registered capital.

The Company shall notify its creditors within ten (10) days from the date of the Company’s resolution on reduction of registered capital and shall publish an announcement in the newspaper within thirty (30) days. A creditor has the right, within thirty (30) days of receiving the notice, or for these who does not receive the notice, within forty five (45) days from the date of the announcement, to require the Company to repay its debt or provide a corresponding guarantee for such debt.

The registered capital of the Company following the reduction of capital shall not fall below the minimum statutory requirement.

Article 31 Mandatory Provisions Article 23 Company Law 178
The Company may, in accordance with the procedures set out in the Articles of Association and with the approval of the relevant governing authority of the State, repurchase its outstanding shares under the following circumstances:

- (1) cancellation of shares for the purposes of reducing its capital;
- (2) merger with another company that holds shares in the Company;
- (3) other circumstances as permitted by laws and administrative regulations.

Article 32 Mandatory Provisions Article 24
The Company may, with the approval of the relevant governing authority of the State for repurchasing its shares, conduct the repurchase in one of the following manners:

- (1) to make an offer of repurchase to all of its shareholders at the same proportion;
- (2) to repurchase shares through public trading on a stock exchange;
- (3) to repurchase through an off-market agreement;

Article 33 Mandatory Provisions Article 25
Where the Company repurchases its shares through an off-market agreement, it shall seek prior approval of the shareholders at general meeting in accordance with the Articles of Association. The Company may release or vary a contract so entered into by the Company or waive its rights thereunder with prior approval by shareholders at general meeting obtained in the same manner.

The contract to repurchase shares as referred to in the preceding paragraph includes, but not limited to, an agreement to become obliged to repurchase or to acquire the right to repurchase shares.

The Company shall not assign a contract for repurchasing its shares or any of its right thereunder.

In respect of the redeemable shares that the Company has the rights to repurchase, if the repurchases are not made on the market or by an offer, the prices shall be limited to a maximum price; if repurchases are made by an offer, such offer should be made available to all shareholders equally.

Article 34 Mandatory Provisions Article 26
Shares repurchased in accordance with laws by the Company shall be cancelled within the period prescribed by laws and administrative regulations. The Company shall apply to the original company registration authority for registration of the change of its registered capital.

The amount of the Company's registered capital shall be reduced by the aggregate par value of those cancelled shares.

Mandatory Provisions Article 27

Article 35

Unless the Company is in the course of liquidation, it must comply with the following provisions in respect of repurchase of its outstanding shares:

- (1) where the Company repurchases its shares at par value, payment shall be made out of book balance of the distributable profits of the Company or out of proceeds of a fresh issue of shares made for that purpose;
- (2) where the Company repurchases its shares at a premium to their par value, payment up to the par value shall be made out of the book balance of distributable profits of the Company or out of the proceeds of a fresh issue of shares made for that purpose. Payment of the portion in excess of the par value shall be effected as follows:
 1. if the shares being repurchased were issued at par value, payment shall be made out of the book balance of the distributable profits of the Company or out of the proceeds of a fresh issue of shares made for that purpose;
 2. if the shares being repurchased were issued at a premium to its par value, payment shall be made out of the book surplus on the distributable profits of the Company or out of the proceeds of the new issue of shares made for that purpose, provided that the amount paid out of the proceeds of the new issue shall not exceed the aggregate amount of premiums received by the Company on the issue of the shares repurchased nor shall it exceed the amount of the Company's premium account (including the premiums on the new issue) at the time of the repurchase;
- (3) payment by the Company in consideration of the following shall be made out of the Company's distributable profits:
 1. acquisition of rights to repurchase shares of the Company;
 2. variation of any contract for repurchasing shares of the Company;
 3. release of its obligation under any contract for repurchasing its shares;
- (4) after the Company's registered capital has been reduced by the total par value of the cancelled shares in accordance with the relevant provisions, the amount deducted from the distributable profits of the Company for payment of the par value portion of the shares repurchased shall be transferred to the Company's share premium account.

Mandatory Provisions Article 28

Chapter 5 Financial Assistance for acquisition of the Company's shares

Article 36

The Company or its subsidiaries shall not, by any means at any time, provide any kind of financial assistance to a person who acquires or proposes to acquire shares of the Company. The said acquirer of shares of the Company includes a person who directly or indirectly assumes any obligations due to the acquisition of shares of the Company.

The Company or its subsidiaries shall not, by any means at any time, provide financial assistance to the said acquirer for the purpose of reducing or discharging the obligations assumed by such person.

This provision does not apply to the circumstances stated in Article 38.

Mandatory Provisions Article 29

Article 37 The financial assistance referred to in this Chapter includes, (without limitation), the following means:

- (1) gift;
- (2) guarantee (including the assumption of liability by the guarantor or the provision of assets by the guarantor to secure the performance of obligations by the obligor), or compensation (other than compensation in respect of the Company's own default) or release or waiver of any rights;
- (3) provision of loan or execution of any other contract under which the obligations of the Company are to be fulfilled before the obligations of another party, or a change in the parties to, or the assignment of rights arising under, such loan or contract;
- (4) any other form of financial assistance given by the Company when the Company is insolvent or has no net assets or when its net assets would thereby be reduced to a material extent.

The expression "assuming an obligation" referred to in this Chapter includes the assumption of obligations by the changing of the obligor's financial position by way of contract or the making of an arrangement (whether enforceable or not, and whether made on its own account or with any other persons), or by any other means.

Mandatory Provisions Article 30

Article 38 The following activities shall not be deemed to be activities as prohibited in Article 36:

- (1) the provision of financial assistance by the Company where the financial assistance is given in good faith in the interests of the Company and the principal purpose of giving the financial assistance is not for the acquisition of shares of the Company, or the giving of the financial assistance is an incidental part of a master plan of the Company;
- (2) the lawful distribution of the Company's assets by way of dividend;
- (3) the allotment of bonus shares as dividends;
- (4) a reduction of registered capital, a repurchase of shares or a reorganization of the shareholding structure of the Company effected in accordance with the Articles of Association;
- (5) the lending of money by the Company within its scope of business and in the ordinary course of its business (provided that the net assets of the Company are not thereby reduced or that, to the extent that the assets are thereby reduced, the financial assistance is provided out of the distributable profits of the Company);
- (6) the provision of money by the Company for contributions to staff and workers' share schemes (provided that the net assets of the Company are not thereby reduced or that, to the extent that the assets are thereby reduced, the financial assistance is provided out of the distributable profits of the Company).

Mandatory Provisions Article 31

Chapter 6 Share certificates and register of members

Article 39 Share certificates of the Company shall be in registered form.

The following major items shall be specified on the share certificate of the Company:

- (1) the Company's name;
- (2) the date of registration of the Company;
- (3) the class of the shares, nominal value and the number of shares represented;
- (4) the serial number of the share certificate;
- (5) other items required to be specified by the stock exchange(s) on which the shares of the Company are listed.

Mandatory Provisions Article 32

Article 40 The share certificates shall be signed by the Chairman. Where the stock exchange on which the shares of the Company are listed requires the share certificates to be signed by other senior management members, the share certificates shall also be signed by such other senior management members. The share certificates shall take effect after being affixed, or affixed by way of printing, with the seal of the Company. The share certificates shall only be affixed with the Company's seal under the authorization of the Board. The signatures of the Chairman of the Company or other relevant senior management members on the share certificates may also be in printed form.

Mandatory Provisions Article 33

Article 41 The Company shall keep a register of shareholders which shall contain the following particulars:

- (1) the name, address (domicile), occupation or nature of each shareholder;
- (2) the class and number of shares held by each shareholder;
- (3) the amount paid up or payable in respect of shares held by each shareholder;
- (4) the serial numbers of the shares held by each shareholder;
- (5) the date on which a person registers as a shareholder; and
- (6) the date on which a person ceases to be a shareholder;

The register of shareholders shall be sufficient evidence of the holding of the Company's shares by a shareholder, unless there is evidence to the contrary.

Article 42 Mandatory Provisions Article 34
The Company may, in accordance with the mutual understanding and agreements made between the competent securities regulatory authority of the State Council and overseas securities regulatory authorities, maintain its register of holders of overseas listed foreign invested shares in Hong Kong and appoint overseas agents to manage such register. The Company shall maintain a duplicate of the register of holders of overseas listed foreign invested shares at the Company's domicile; the appointed overseas agents shall ensure the consistency between the original and the duplicate of the register of holders of overseas listed foreign invested shares at all times.

If there is any inconsistency between the original and the duplicate of the register of holders of overseas listed foreign invested shares, the original version shall prevail.

Article 43 Mandatory Provisions Article 35
The Company shall maintain a complete register of shareholders.

The register of shareholders shall include the following:

- (1) the register of shareholders maintained at the Company's domicile (other than those parts as stipulated in clause (2) and (3) of this Article);
- (2) the register of shareholders for the holders of overseas listed foreign invested shares of the Company maintained at the place where the overseas listed foreign invested shares are listed;
- (3) the register of shareholders maintained at such other place as the Board may consider necessary for the purpose of listing of the Company's shares.

Article 44 Mandatory Provisions Article 36
Different parts of the register of shareholders shall not overlap one another. No transfer of the shares registered in any part of the register shall, during the existence of that registration, be registered in any other part of the register of shareholders.

Alteration or rectification of each part of the register of shareholders shall be made in accordance with the laws of the place where that part of the register of shareholders is maintained.

Article 45 Mandatory Provisions Article 37
All fully paid up overseas listed foreign invested shares are freely transferable pursuant to the Articles of Association.

However, in respect of the fully paid-up overseas listed foreign invested shares which are listed on Hong Kong Stock Exchange, the Board may refuse to recognize any instrument of transfer without giving any reason unless such transfer fulfills the following conditions:

- (1) A fee of HK$2.5 per instrument of transfer of such higher amount as the Board may from time to time require but no more than the amount prescribed from time to time by the Hong Kong Stock Exchange has been paid to the Company for registration of the instrument of transfer and other documents related to which will affect the right of ownership of the shares;

- (2) the instrument of transfer involves only the overseas listed foreign invested shares listed on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange;
- (3) the stamp duty payable on the instrument of transfer has been paid;
- (4) the relevant share certificates and evidence reasonably required by the Board showing that the transferor has the right to transfer such shares have been provided;
- (5) if the shares are to be transferred to joint holders, the number of such joint holders shall not exceed four (4);
- (6) the relevant shares are not subject to any lien of the Company.

Article 46 Transfers may not be entered in the register of shareholders within thirty (30) days prior to the date of a shareholders' general meeting or within five (5) days before the record date set by the Company for the purpose of distribution of dividends.

Mandatory Provisions Article 38

Article 47 When the Company intends to convene a shareholders' general meeting, distribute dividends, liquidate and engage in other activities that involve determination of shareholdings, the Board shall decide on a date for the determination of shareholdings. Shareholders whose names appear in the register of shareholders at the close of business of such date shall be shareholders of the Company.

Mandatory Provisions Article 39

Article 48 Any person who objects to the register of shareholders and requests to have his name entered into or removed from the register of shareholders may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for rectification of the register.

Mandatory Provisions Article 40

Article 49 Any shareholder who is registered in or any person who requests to have his name entered in the register of shareholders may (if his share certificates (the "original certificates") are lost) apply to the Company for a replacement share certificate in respect of such shares (the "relevant shares").

If a holder of domestic shares loses his share certificates and applies for their replacement, it shall be dealt with in accordance with the provisions of Article 144 of the Company Law.

If a holder of overseas listed foreign invested shares loses his share certificates and applies for their replacements, it may be dealt with in accordance with the relevant laws, the rules of the stock exchange or other relevant regulations of the place where the original register of holders of overseas listed foreign invested shares is maintained.

If a holder of overseas listed foreign invested shares which are listed on Hong Kong Stock Exchange loses his share certificates and applies for their replacements, the issue of replacement share certificates to such holders shall comply with the following requirements:

- (1) The applicant shall submit an application to the Company in prescribed form accompanied by a notarial act or statutory declaration, containing the grounds upon which the application is made and the circumstances and evidence of the loss of the share certificates as well as declaring that no other person shall be entitled to request to be registered as the shareholder in respect of the relevant shares.
- (2) No statement has been received by the Company from a person other than the applicant for having his name registered as a holder of the relevant shares before the Company comes to a decision to issue the replacement share certificate.
- (3) The Company shall, if it decides to issue a replacement share certificate to the applicant, make an announcement of its intention to issue the replacement share certificate in such newspapers designated by the Board. The announcement shall be made at least once every thirty (30) days in a period of ninety (90) days.
- (4) The Company shall have, prior to the publication of its announcement of intention to issue a replacement certificate,
 1. delivered to the Hong Kong Stock Exchange a copy of the announcement to be published. The Company may publish the announcement upon receiving a confirmation from such stock exchange that the announcement has been exhibited at the premises of the stock exchange. The announcement shall be exhibited at the premises of the stock exchange for a period of ninety (90) days.
 2. In case an application to issue a replacement share certificate has been made without the consent of the registered holder of the relevant shares, the Company shall send by post to such registered shareholder a copy of the announcement to be published.
- (5) If, upon expiration of the 90-day period referred to in clause (3) and (4) of this Article, the Company has not received from any person any objection to such application, the Company may issue a replacement share certificate to the applicant according to his application.
- (6) Where the Company issues a replacement share certificate under this Article, it shall forthwith cancel the original share certificate and enter the cancellation and issue in the register of shareholders accordingly.
- (7) All expenses relating to the cancellation of an original share certificate and the issue of a replacement share certificate by the Company shall be borne by the applicant. The Company may refuse to take any action until a reasonable guarantee is provided by the applicant for such expenses.

Mandatory Provisions Article 41 Company Law 144

Article 50

Where the Company issues a replacement share certificate pursuant to the Articles of Association, the name of a bona fide purchaser who obtains the aforementioned new share certificate or a shareholder who thereafter registers as the owner of such shares (in the case that he is a bona fide purchaser) shall not be removed from the register of shareholders.

Article 51 Mandatory Provisions Article 42
The Company shall not be liable for any damages sustained by any person by reason of the cancellation of the original share certificate or the issuance of the replacement certificate, unless the claimant proves that the Company has committed fraudulent act.

Mandatory Provisions Article 43

Chapter 7 Shareholders' rights and obligations

Article 52 A shareholder of the Company is a person who lawfully holds shares of the Company and whose name is entered into the register of shareholders.

A shareholder shall enjoy the relevant rights and assume the relevant obligations in accordance with the class and number of shares he/she holds. Shareholders holding the same class of shares shall be entitled to the same rights and assume the same obligations.

For joint holding of any shares, if one of the joint shareholders is deceased, only the other existing shareholders of the joint shareholders shall be deemed as the persons who have the ownership of the relevant shares. But the Board has the power to require them to provide a certificate of death of the relevant shareholder as necessary for the purpose of modifying the relevant register of shareholders. In respect of any of the joint shareholders of the shares, only the joint shareholder ranking first in the register of shareholders have the right to accept certificates of the relevant shares from the Company, receive notices of the Company, attend and vote at shareholders' general meetings of the Company of all the relevant shares. Any notice which is delivered to the aforesaid shareholder shall be considered as having been delivered to all the joint shareholders of the relevant shares.

No powers shall be taken to freeze or otherwise impair any of the rights attaching to any share just because the person or persons who are interested directly or indirectly therein have failed to disclose their interests to the Company.

The ordinary shareholders of the Company shall be entitled to the following rights:

- (1) the right to dividends and other forms of profit distributions in proportion to the number of shares held;
- (2) the right to attend or appoint a proxy to attend shareholders' general meetings and to exercise the voting right thereat;
- (3) the right to supervise and manage the business activities of the Company and to put forward proposals and raise inquiries;
- (4) the right to transfer shares in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations and provisions of the Articles of Association;
- (5) the right to obtain relevant information in accordance with the provisions of the Articles of Association, including:
 1. to obtain a copy of the Articles of Association, subject to payment of the cost of such copy;

2. to inspect and copy, subject to payment of a reasonable charge:
 - (i) all parts of the register of shareholders;
 - (ii) personal particulars of each of the Company's Directors, supervisors, general manager, deputy general manager and other senior management members, including:
 - (a) present name and alias and any former name and alias;
 - (b) principal address (domicile);
 - (c) nationality;
 - (d) primary and all other part-time occupations;
 - (e) identification document and its number;
3. report on the state of the Company's share capital;
4. reports showing the aggregate par value, quantity, maximum and minimum price paid in respect of each class of shares repurchased by the Company since the end of the last accounting year and the aggregate amount incurred by the Company for this purpose;
5. minutes of shareholders' general meetings
- (6) in the event of the termination or liquidation of the Company, to participate in the distribution of remaining assets of the Company in accordance with the number of shares held;
- (7) other rights conferred by laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association.

Mandatory Provisions Article 45

Article 54 The ordinary shareholders of the Company shall assume the following obligations:

- (1) To abide by the Articles of Association;
- (2) To pay subscription monies according to the number of shares subscribed and the method of subscription;
- (3) Other obligations imposed by laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association.

Shareholders are not liable to make any further contribution to the share capital other than as agreed by the subscribers of the relevant shares on subscription.

Mandatory Provisions Article 46

Article 55 In addition to obligations imposed by laws, administrative regulations or required by the listing rules of the stock exchange on which shares of the Company are listed, a controlling shareholder, when exercising his rights as a shareholder, shall not exercise his voting rights in respect of the following matters in a manner prejudicial to the interests of all or some of the shareholders of the Company:

- (1) to relieve a Director or supervisor of his duty to act honestly in the best interests of the Company;
- (2) to approve the deprivation by a Director or supervisor (for his own benefit or for the benefit of another person), by any means, of the Company's assets, including (without limitation) opportunities beneficial to the Company;
- (3) to approve the deprivation by a Director or supervisor (for his own benefit or for the benefit of another person) of the individual rights of other shareholders, including (without limitation) rights to distributions and voting rights save for a restructuring of the Company submitted to the general meeting of shareholders for approval in accordance with the Articles of Association.

Article 56

The term "controlling shareholder" referred to in the preceding Article means a person who satisfies any one of the following conditions:

- (1) a person who, acting alone or in concert with others, has the power to elect more than half of the Board members;
- (2) a person who, acting alone or in concert with others, has the power to exercise or to control the exercise of 30% (inclusive) or more of the voting rights in the Company;
- (3) a person who, acting alone or in concert with others, holds 30% (inclusive) or more of the issued and outstanding shares of the Company;
- (4) a person who, acting alone or in concert with others, has de facto control of the Company in any other way.

Mandatory Provisions Article 48

Chapter 8 Shareholders' general meetings

Article 57

The shareholders' general meeting is the organ of authority of the Company and shall exercise its functions and powers in accordance with the law.

Mandatory Provisions Article 49

Article 58

The shareholders' general meeting may exercise the following functions and powers:

- (1) to decide on the operating policies and investment plans of the Company;
- (2) to elect and replace Directors and decide on matters relating to the remuneration of Directors;

- (3) to elect and replace the supervisors who are representatives of shareholders and decide on matters relating to the remuneration of supervisors;
- (4) to examine and approve reports of the Board;
- (5) to examine and approve reports of the Supervisory Committee;
- (6) to examine and approve the Company's proposed annual financial budgets and final accounts;
- (7) to examine and approve the Company's profit distribution plans and plans for making up losses;
- (8) to decide on increases or reductions in the Company's registered capital;
- (9) to decide on matters such as merger, division, dissolution and liquidation of the Company;
- (10) to decide on the issue of bonds by the Company;
- (11) to adopt resolutions on the Company's appointments, dismissals or non-reappointments of accounting firms;
- (12) to amend the Articles of Association;
- (13) to examine the proposals submitted by shareholders individually or in aggregate holding 3% (inclusive) or more of the Company's voting shares;
- (14) other matters required by laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association to be resolved at the general meeting of shareholders.

Mandatory Provisions Article 50 Company Law 103

Article 59 Unless a prior approval is obtained in a shareholders' general meeting, the Company shall not enter into any contract with any party other than the Directors, supervisors, general manager, deputy general manager and other senior management members pursuant to which such party shall be responsible for managing the whole or any substantial part of the Company's business.

Mandatory Provisions Article 51

Article 60 General meetings of shareholders shall be annual general meetings and special general meetings. A general meeting of shareholders shall be convened by the Board. Annual general meeting shall be held once every year within six months after the end of the previous accounting year.

The Board shall hold a special general meeting within two months upon the occurrence of one of the following circumstances:

- (1) the number of Directors is less than the number required by the Company Law or less than two-thirds of the number required by the Articles of Association;
- (2) the uncovered losses reach of one third of the Company's total share capital;

- (3) shareholders individually or in aggregate holding not less than ten percentage (10%) (inclusive) of the Company's issued shares with voting rights request in writing to hold a special general meeting;
- (4) the Board considers it necessary or the Supervisory Committee proposes to hold such a meeting;
- (5) two or more Independent Directors propose to hold such a meeting.

Mandatory Provisions Article 52 Company Law 101

Article 61 When the Company convenes a shareholders' general meeting, it shall issue a written notice forty-five (45) days prior to the meeting informing all the registered shareholders of the matters to be examined at the meeting as well as the date and place of the meeting. Shareholders who intend to attend the shareholders' general meeting shall, within twenty (20) days prior to the meeting, deliver a written reply to the Company on meeting attendance.

Mandatory Provisions Article 53

Article 62 When the Company convenes an annual general meeting, shareholder(s) individually or in aggregate holding 3% (inclusive) or more of the total voting shares of the Company shall have the right to propose new motions in writing, and the Company shall place such proposed motions on the agenda for such annual general meeting if they are matters falling within the functions and powers of the general meetings.

Mandatory Provisions Article 54 Company Law 103

Article 63 The Company shall, based on the written replies received twenty (20) days before the date of the shareholders' general meeting, calculate the number of voting shares represented by shareholders who intend to attend the meeting. If the number of voting shares represented by the shareholders who intend to attend the meeting reaches not less than one half of the Company's total voting shares, the Company may hold the general meeting. If not, the Company shall within five (5) days notify the shareholders again by notice of the matters to be considered, the place and the date of the meeting. The Company may hold the general meeting after such publication of such notice.

A special general meeting shall not decide on any matter not stated in the notice of the meeting.

Mandatory Provisions Article 55

Article 64 A notice of the general meeting shall meet the following requirements:

- (1) be in writing;
- (2) specify the place, date and time of the meeting;
- (3) state the matters to be discussed at the meeting;
- (4) provide such information and explanation as are necessary for the shareholders to make an informed decision on the proposals put before them. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, where a proposal is made to amalgamate the Company with another, to repurchase the shares of the Company, to reorganize its share capital, or to restructure the Company in any other way, the terms of the proposed transaction must be provided in detail together with copies of the proposed contract, if any, and the cause and effect of such proposal must be properly explained;

- (5) contain a disclosure of the nature and extent, if any, of the material interests of any Director, supervisor, general manager, deputy managers and other senior management members in the proposed transaction and the effect which the proposed transaction will have on them in their capacity as shareholders in so far as it is different from the effect on the interests of shareholders of the same class;
- (6) contain the full text of any special resolution to be proposed at the meeting;
- (7) contain a conspicuous statement that a shareholder entitled to attend and vote at such meeting is entitled to appoint one (1) or more proxies to attend and vote at such meeting on his behalf and that a proxy need not be a shareholder;
- (8) specify the time and place for lodging the instrument of proxies for the relevant meeting.

Article 65

Notice of general meetings shall be served on each shareholder (whether or not such shareholder is entitled to vote at the meeting), by personal delivery or prepaid post to the address of the shareholder as shown in the register of shareholders. For the holders of domestic shares, notice of the general meetings may also be issued by way of public announcement.

The public announcement referred to in the preceding paragraph shall be published in one (1) or more newspapers designated by the competent securities regulatory authority of the State Council within the interval of forty-five (45) days to fifty (50) days before the date of the meeting. After the publication of such announcement, the holders of domestic shares shall be deemed to have received the notice of the relevant shareholders' general meeting.

Sufficient notice shall be given by the Company to ensure that the holders of foreign invested shares with their registered address in Hong Kong would have sufficient time to exercise their rights or act in accordance with the terms of the notice.

Article 66

The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting by, any person entitled to receive such notice shall not invalidate the meeting and the resolutions passed at the meeting.

Article 67

Any shareholder entitled to attend and vote at the general meeting shall have the right to appoint one (1) or several persons (who may not be shareholders) to act as his/her proxy to attend and vote at the meeting on his/her behalf. The proxy so appointed by the shareholder may, pursuant to the instructions of the shareholder, exercise the following rights:

- (1) the right which the shareholder has to speak at the general meeting;
- (2) the right to demand a poll alone or jointly with others;

- (3) the right to exercise voting rights on a show of hands or on a poll, provided that where more than one proxy is appointed, the proxies may only exercise such voting rights on a poll.

If the said shareholder is a recognized clearing house as defined in the Securities and Futures Ordinance (Hong Kong Law Chapter 420), the shareholder may authorize one (1) or more suitable persons to act as its representative at any shareholders' general meeting or at any class meeting; however, if more than one (1) person are authorized, the power of attorney shall clearly indicate the number and class of the share certificates involved by way of the said authorization. The persons after such authorization may represent the recognized clearing house (or its nominee) to exercise the rights, as if they were the individual shareholders of the Company.

Article 68

The instrument appointing a proxy must be in writing under the hand of the principal or his attorney duly authorized in writing; for a legal person, the instrument of proxy must be affixed with the common seal or signed by its Director or attorney duly authorized in writing. The instrument of proxy shall contain the number of the shares to be represented by the proxy. If several persons are authorized as the proxies for the shareholder, the instrument of proxy shall specify the number of the shares to be represented by each proxy.

Mandatory Provisions Article 60

Article 69

The instrument of proxy shall be lodged with the domicile of the Company or other places specified in the notice of meeting twenty-four (24) hours before the relevant meeting for voting according to the instrument of proxy, or 24 hours before the designated time of voting. Where the instrument of proxy is signed by a person authorized by the principal, the power of attorney or other authorization documents authorized to be signed shall be notarized. A notarized copy of that power of attorney or other authorization documents, together with the instrument of proxy, shall be deposited at the domicile of the Company or other places specified in the notice of meeting.

Where the principal is a legal person, its legal representative or other persons authorized by the Board or other decision-making organ by way of a resolution to act as its representatives may attend the general meeting of the Company.

Article 70

Any instrument of proxy issued to a shareholder by the Board for use by him/her for appointing a proxy shall allow the shareholder to freely instruct the proxy to vote in favor of or against each resolution related to each matter to be considered at the relevant meeting. Such form shall contain a statement that in the absence of instructions by the shareholder, his/her proxy may vote as he/she thinks fit.

Mandatory Provisions Article 62

Article 71

Where the principal has deceased, incapacitated to act, withdrawn the appointment or the power of attorney, or where the relevant shares have been transferred prior to the voting, a vote given in accordance with the instrument of proxy shall remain valid provided that no written notice of such event has been received by the Company prior to the commencement of the relevant meeting.

Mandatory Provisions Article 63

Article 72 Individual shareholders attending the shareholders' general meeting in person shall produce their own identification documents and evidence of shareholding. If a shareholder appoints others to attend the meeting, the proxy shall produce his/her own identification document and the instrument of proxy. If a legal person shareholder appoints a proxy to attend the shareholders' general meeting, such proxy shall produce his identification documents and a notarized copy of the resolution of the Board of Directors of the legal person appointing such proxy.

Article 73 There shall be two (2) types of resolutions of shareholders' general meetings, namely ordinary resolutions and special resolutions.

To adopt an ordinary resolution, votes representing not less than one-half of the voting rights represented by the shareholders (including proxies) present at the meeting must be exercised in favor of the resolution in order for it to be passed.

To adopt a special resolution, votes representing not less than two-thirds of the voting rights represented by the shareholders (including proxies) present at the meeting must be exercised in favor of the resolution in order for it to be passed.

A shareholder (including his proxy) attending the meeting shall vote in favor of or against each resolution relating to every matter which has been put to vote at the relevant meeting; if such shareholder or his proxy abstains from voting, any vote by such shareholder or his proxy shall not be treated as having a voting right in counting the voting results.

Where any shareholder is, under the GEM Listing Rules, required to abstain from voting on any particular resolution or restricted to voting only for or only against any particular resolution, any vote cast by or on behalf of such shareholder in contravention of such requirement or restriction shall not be treated as having a voting right.

Mandatory Provisions Article 64

Article 74 A shareholder (including proxy) when voting at a shareholders' general meeting may exercise voting rights in accordance with the number of shares carrying the right to vote and each share shall have one vote.

Mandatory Provisions Article 65

Article 75 A resolution shall be decided by a show of hands at any general meeting unless required by the laws and administrative regulations applicable to the Company, the relevant regulatory authorities and the stock exchange of the place where the Company is listed or a poll is demanded by the following persons before or after any vote by a show of hands:

- (1) the Chairman of the meeting;
- (2) at least two (2) shareholders entitled to vote or their proxies;
- (3) one (1) or more shareholders (including proxies) individually or jointly holding more than ten percent (10%) (inclusive) of the voting shares represented by all shareholders present at the meeting.

Unless a poll is so demanded, a declaration by the Chairman of the meeting that a resolution has on a show of hands been carried, and an entry to that effect in the minutes of the meeting shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes cast in favour or against such resolution at the meeting.

The demand for a poll may be withdrawn by the person who makes such demand.

Article 76 Mandatory Provisions Article 66
A poll demanded on such matters as the election of the Chairman or the adjournment of the meeting, shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on any other matters shall be taken at such time as the Chairman may decide, and the meeting may proceed to discuss other matters, while the results of the poll shall still be deemed to be a resolution passed at that meeting.

Article 77 Mandatory Provisions Article 67
On a poll, a shareholder (including proxy) entitled to two or more votes need not cast all his/her votes in the same way.

Article 78 Mandatory Provisions Article 68
When the number of votes for and against a resolution is equal, whether the vote is taken by a show of hands or by poll, the Chairman of the meeting shall be entitled a casting vote.

Article 79 Mandatory Provisions Article 69
The following matters shall be resolved by an ordinary resolution at a shareholders' general meeting:

- (1) work reports of the Board and the Supervisory Committee;
- (2) plans formulated by the Board for distribution of profits and for making up losses;
- (3) the appointment and removal of members of the Board and the Supervisory Committee and their remuneration and payment methods;
- (4) the Company's annual financial budgets and final accounts, balance sheets, income statements and other financial statements;
- (5) matters other than those required by the laws and administrative regulations or by the Articles of Association to be adopted by special resolutions.

Article 80 Mandatory Provisions Article 70
The following matters shall be resolved by a special resolution at a shareholders' general meeting:

- (1) increase or reduction of the share capital and issue of shares of any class, stock warrants or other similar securities;

- (2) issuance of corporate bonds;
- (3) the division, merger, dissolution, liquidation of the Company;
- (4) amendments to the Articles of Association;
- (5) Other matters considered by the shareholders' general meeting, by way of an ordinary resolution, to have a substantial impact on the Company and require approval by a special resolution.

Mandatory Provisions Article 71

Article 81

Shareholders who request for the convening of a special general meeting or a class meeting shall comply with the following procedures:

- (1) Shareholders individually or in aggregate holding 10% (inclusive) or more of the shares carrying the right to vote at the meeting sought to be held shall sign one (1) or more counterpart requisitions stating the object of the meeting and requiring the Board to convene a shareholders' special general meeting or a class meeting thereof. The Board shall as soon as possible proceed to convene the special general meeting of shareholders or a class meeting thereof after receipt of such requisition(s).

The amount of shareholdings referred to above shall be calculated as at the date of deposit of the written requisition(s).

- (2) If the Board fails to issue a notice of such a meeting within thirty (30) days from the date of receipt of the requisition(s), the shareholders who lodge the request(s) may request in writing the Supervisory Committee to call and convene the meeting in time. If the Supervisory Committee fails to do so, shareholders individually or in aggregate holding more than ten (10) percent shares in not less than ninety (90) consecutive days can call and convene such a meeting themselves (in a manner as similar as possible to the manner in which shareholders' general meetings are convened by the Board).

Any reasonable expenses incurred by the shareholders to call and convene a meeting by reason of failure by the Board or Supervisory Committee to duly do so as described above shall be borne by the Company and any sum so repaid shall be set-off against sums owned by the Company to the defaulting Directors.

Article 82

Shareholders' general meeting shall be convened and chaired by the Chairman of the Board of Directors. If the Chairman is unable to attend the meeting for any reason, the Chairman may designate a Director of the Company, on behalf of him, to convene and hold the meeting. If no Chairman of the meeting has been so designated, shareholders present may elect a person to be the Chairman of the meeting. If for any reason, the shareholders fail to elect a Chairman, then the shareholder (including proxy) present and holding the largest number of shares carrying the right to vote shall be the Chairman of the meeting.

Mandatory Provisions Article 73

Article 83 The Chairman of the meeting shall determine whether or not a resolution of the shareholders' general meeting shall be adopted. His/her decision shall be final and conclusive and shall be announced at the meeting and recorded in the minutes.

Mandatory Provisions Article 74

Article 84 In the event that the Chairman of the meeting has any doubt as to the result of a resolution put forward to the vote, he/she may have the votes counted. In the event that the Chairman of the meeting does not have the votes counted, any shareholder present in person or by proxy objects to the result announced by the Chairman of the meeting may demand that the votes to be counted immediately after the declaration of the voting result. The Chairman of the meeting shall have the votes counted immediately.

Mandatory Provisions Article 75

Article 85 In the event that the votes are counted at the shareholders' general meeting, the counting results shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting.

Mandatory Provisions Article 76

Article 86 Minutes of shareholders' general meetings shall be compiled with the decisions of the businesses thereof signed by Directors present at the meeting. The minutes of meetings and the attendance records signed by the attending shareholders and proxies shall be kept at the Company's domicile.

Mandatory Provisions Article 76

Article 87 Copies of the minutes of the meetings shall be available for inspection during business hours of the Company by any shareholder without charge. If a shareholder demands from the Company for a copy of such minutes, the Company shall send a copy to him/her within seven (7) days after receipt of reasonable charges.

Mandatory Provisions Article 77

Chapter 9 Special procedures for voting by a class of shareholders

Article 88 Shareholders holding different classes of shares shall be class shareholders.

Class shareholders shall be entitled to the rights and assume obligations pursuant to the provisions of the law, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association.

Mandatory Provisions Article 78

Article 89 Any variation or abrogation of the rights of any class of shareholders proposed by the Company may only come into effect upon the adoption of a special resolution at a shareholders' general meeting and approval by the affected shareholders of that class at a separate meeting held in accordance with Articles 91 and 95 of the Articles of Association.

Mandatory Provisions Article 79

Article 90 The following circumstances shall be deemed to be a variation or abrogation of the rights of shareholders of a certain class:

- (1) to increase or decrease the number of shares of a particular class, or increase or decrease the number of shares of another class having rights on voting, distribution or other privileges equal or superior to those of the shares of such class;
- (2) to effect an exchange of all or part of shares of such class into shares of other classes, or to effect an exchange or grant a right of exchange of all or part of the shares of other classes into shares of such class;
- (3) to remove or reduce rights to accrued dividends or cumulative dividends attached to shares of such class;
- (4) to reduce or remove the rights to a dividend preference or a liquidation preference to distribution of property attached to shares of such class;
- (5) to add, remove or reduce the rights to conversion, options, voting, transfer, pre-emptive rights to placement and acquiring securities of the Company attached to shares of such class;
- (6) to remove or reduce rights to receive payment payable by the Company in particular currencies attached to shares of such class;
- (7) to create a new class of shares having rights on voting, distribution or other privileges equal or superior to those of the shares of such class;
- (8) to restrict the transfer or ownership of the shares of such class or increase such restrictions;
- (9) to issue subscription rights or share conversion rights for shares of such class or other classes;
- (10) to increase the rights and privileges of shares of other classes;
- (11) to restructure the Company where the proposed restructuring scheme will result in different classes of shareholders bearing a disproportionate burden of obligations of such restructuring;
- (12) to vary or abrogate the terms provided in this chapter.

Mandatory Provisions Article 80

Article 91

Shareholders of the affected class, whether or not having the right to vote at the shareholders' general meeting, shall nevertheless have the right to vote at class meetings on matters referred to in clause (2) to (8) and (11) to (12) of Article 90 of the Articles of Association, but interested shareholders shall not be entitled to vote at class meetings.

The interested shareholders mentioned in the preceding paragraph shall have the following meanings:

- (1) in the case of a repurchase of its own shares by the Company by making offers to all shareholders on a same pro rata basis or through public dealing on a stock exchange in accordance with Article 32 of the Articles of Association, “interested shareholder” shall refer to the controlling shareholders as defined in Article 56 of the Articles of Association;
- (2) in the case of a repurchase of its own shares by the Company through an off-market agreement in accordance with the provisions of Article 32 of the Articles of Association, “interested shareholders” shall refer to the shareholders to which the proposed agreement relates;
- (3) in the case of a restructuring of the Company, “interested shareholder” shall refer to a shareholder within a class who bears liabilities less than the proportional burden imposed on other shareholders of that class or who has interests different from those held by shareholders of the same class.

Mandatory Provisions Article 81

Article 92

A resolution of the class meeting shall be passed in accordance with Article 89 of the Articles of Association by shareholders present in the meeting representing not less than two-thirds of voting rights.

Where any shareholder is, under the GEM Listing Rules, required to abstain from voting on any particular resolution of the class meeting or restricted to voting only for or only against any particular resolution of the class meeting, any vote cast by or on behalf of such shareholder in contravention of such requirement or restriction shall not be treated as having a voting right.

Written notice of a class meeting convened by the Company shall be dispatched forty-five (45) days prior to the date of the class meeting to all shareholders of such class whose names appear on the register of shareholders, specifying the matters to be considered and the date and place of the meeting. Shareholders who intend to attend the meeting shall serve on the Company written replies of their intention to attend twenty (20) days prior to the date of the meeting.

If the number of voting shares at such meeting held by shareholders who intend to attend such meeting reaches not less than one-half of the total number of voting shares of such class at such meeting, the Company may hold such class meeting; if this cannot be attained, the Company shall further notify the shareholders by way of announcement within five (5) days thereof specifying the matters to be considered and the date and place of the meeting. After such announcement has been given, the Company may then hold the class meeting.

The quorum for a separate class meeting (other than an adjourned meeting) to consider a variation of the rights of any class of shares shall be the holders of at least one-third of the issued shares of that class.

Mandatory Provisions Article 83

Article 94

Notices of the class meeting only need to be served on shareholders entitled to vote thereat.

The procedures for holding the class meeting shall be similar to those for holding the shareholders' general meeting as far as possible, and the provisions in the Articles of Association relating to the procedures for a shareholders' general meeting shall apply to the class meeting.

Article 95 Mandatory Provisions Article 84
Save for shareholders of shares of other classes, the holders of domestic shares and holders of overseas listed foreign invested shares are deemed to be different classes of shareholders.

The special procedures for approval by class shareholders shall not apply to the following circumstances:

- (i) where the Company issues, upon approval by special resolution of the shareholders in a general meeting, either separately or concurrently once every twelve months, not more than 20% of each of the existing issued domestic shares and overseas listed foreign invested shares of the Company; or
- (ii) where the Company's plan to issue domestic shares and overseas listed foreign invested shares upon its establishment is implemented within 15 months from the date of approval by China Securities Regulatory Commission or other securities authority under the State Council.

Chapter 10 Board of Directors

Article 96 The Company sets a Board, which shall comprise ten (10) Directors of which one (1) is the Chairman and one (1) is the vice Chairman, including three (3) executive Directors, seven (7) external Directors (herein meaning those Directors who do not hold office in the Company, including independent Directors. Among the external Directors, four (4) of them are independent Directors (therein meaning those Directors who are independent from the shareholders and do not hold office in the Company).

Mandatory Provisions Article 86

Article 97 Directors shall be elected at shareholders' general meeting. The term of office of the Directors shall be three (3) years. Upon maturity of the current term of office, a Director shall be eligible to offer himself for re-election and reappointment.

The written notice of an intention to nominate a candidate of Director and that of a willingness to accept the nomination by the candidate shall be delivered to the Company seven (7) days prior to the date of the convening of the shareholders' general meeting. The delivery of such written notice shall be made no earlier than the day after the dispatch of the notice of the meeting for election of the relevant Director and no later than seven (7) days prior to the date of such meeting.

The Chairman and executive Directors of the Board shall be elected and removed by more than one-half of all Directors. The term of office of the Chairman and executive Directors shall be three (3) years. They shall be eligible to offer themselves for re-election and reappointment.

The shareholders' general meeting may by ordinary resolution remove any Director before the expiration of his term of office (but without prejudice to such Director's right to claim damages based on any contract), subject to full compliance with relevant laws and administrative regulations.

The Chairman and executive Directors may concurrently serve as the general manager, deputy general manager or other senior management members (except for supervisor) of the Company. Directors are not required to hold any shares of the Company.

Article 98 Mandatory Provisions Article 87

The Board shall report to the shareholders' general meeting and exercises the following powers:

- (2) to supervise and check on the implementation of resolutions of the Board;
- (3) to sign the securities certificates issued by the Company;
- (4) to exercise other powers conferred by the Board.

If the Chairman is unable or fails to perform his duties, the Chairman may designate executive Director to do so on behalf of him.

Mandatory Provisions Article 90

Article 102 Meetings of the Board shall be held at least twice every year and shall be convened by the Chairman of the Board. All of the Directors and supervisors shall be notified about the meeting fifteen (15) days beforehand. In case of emergency, a special Board meeting may be held if it is so requested by one-thirds (inclusive) or above of the Directors or the general manager of the Company.

The reasonable expenses incurred by the Directors who attend Board meetings shall be borne by the Company. These expenses include the traffic expenses covering the distance between the place where a Director is located and the place where a meeting is held (in the event that these two places are not the same), the fees of room and board during the term of the meeting, the rent of the place of the meeting and the local traffic expenses.

Mandatory Provisions Article 91 Company Law 111

Article 103 Regular and special Board meetings shall be noticed by way as follows:

- (1) If the Board has specified the time and place of the regular Board meeting in advance, no service of notice is required.

- (2) If the Board has not specified the time and place of the Board meeting in advance, the Chairman of the Board shall, at least ten (10) to fourteen (14) days beforehand, inform the Directors and Supervisors the time and the place of the Board meeting by way of telegraph, telex, fax, courier, registered mail or by hand.
- (3) If there is a need to hold a Board meeting in case of emergency, the Chairman of the Board shall ask the secretary to the Board to, not less than two (2) days and not more than ten (10) days prior to the day when the special Board meeting is held, inform all the Directors and supervisors the time and the place of the Board meeting by way of telegraph, telex, fax, courier, registered mail or by hand.
- (4) The notice shall be written in Chinese with the agenda for the meeting attached. If necessary, the English version can be attached, any Director may waive the right of receiving the notice of Board meeting.
- (5) Notice of a meeting shall be deemed to have been given to any Director who attends the meeting without protest against, before or at its commencement, any lack of notice.
- (6) Any regular or special meeting of the Board may be held by way of telephone conference or similar communication equipment so long as all Directors participating in the meeting can clearly hear and communicate with each other via such equipment. All such Directors shall be deemed to be present in person at the meeting.
- (7) The Board of Directors may accept written resolution in lieu of the Board meeting. The Board of Directors shall send the draft resolution to all the Directors either by hand, mail, telegram or facsimile. If the Board has served the resolution on all the Directors and the number of the Directors who sign to approve the resolution reaches the quorum for approval, the resolution so delivered to the secretary to the Board shall become the resolution of the Board of Directors and no physical Board meeting is required to be held.

Mandatory Provisions Article 92

Article 104

The Board meeting may not be held unless not less than half of the Directors are present.

Each Director shall have a ballot for voting. Resolutions of the Board shall be passed by a simple majority of all the Directors. In the case of equal division of votes, the Chairman of the Board of Directors is entitled to a casting vote.

When more than a quarter of Directors or more than two (2) external Directors consider the materials for resolutions so provided are not sufficient or the argument contained therein is not clear, they may suggest jointly to defer the Board meeting or defer the discussion of such matter, and the Board shall accept such suggestion.

Mandatory Provisions Article 93

Article 105 Directors shall attend Board meetings in person. Where a Director is unable to attend a meeting for any reason, he/she may by a written power of attorney appoint another Director to attend the meeting on his/her behalf. The power of attorney shall specify the extent of authorization.

A Director appointed as the representative of another Director to attend the meeting shall exercise the rights of a Director within the scope of authority conferred by the appointing Director. Where a Director is unable to attend a Board meeting and has not appointed a proxy to attend the meeting on his/her behalf, he/she shall be deemed to have waived his/her right to vote at the meeting.

Mandatory Provisions Article 94
Article 106 The Board shall keep minutes of resolutions passed at Board meetings. The minutes shall be signed by the Directors present at the meeting, the secretary to the Board and the person who recorded the minutes. Opinions of the independent Directors shall be clearly stated in the resolutions of the Board. The Directors shall be liable for the resolutions of the Board. If a resolution of the Board violates the laws, administrative regulations or the Articles of Association and the Company suffers serious losses as a result thereof, the Directors who participated in the passing of such resolution are liable to compensate the Company. However, if it can be proven that a Director expressly objected to the resolution when the resolution was voted on, and that such objection was recorded in the minutes of the meeting, such Director may be released from such liability.

Mandatory Provisions Article 117

Article 130

The fiduciary duties of the Directors, supervisors, general manager, deputy general manager and other senior management members of the Company do not necessarily cease with the termination of their tenure. The duty of confidence in relation to trade secrets of the Company survives the termination of their tenure. Other duties may continue for such period as fairness may require depending on the time lapse between the termination of tenure and the occurrence of the event concerned and the circumstances under which the relationships between them and the Company are terminated.

Article 131 Mandatory Provisions Article 118
Except for circumstances prescribed in Article 55 of the Articles of Association, a Director, supervisor, general manager, deputy general manager and other senior management member of the Company may be relieved of liability for specific breaches of his duty by the informed consent of shareholders given at a general meeting.

Article 132 Mandatory Provisions Article 119
Where a Director, supervisor, general manager, deputy general manager and other senior management member of the Company is, directly or indirectly, materially interested in a contract, transaction or arrangement or proposed contract, transaction or arrangement with the Company (other than his/her contract of service with the Company), he/she shall declare the nature and extent of his/her interests to the Board at the earliest opportunity, whether or not the contract, transaction or arrangement or proposal therefor is otherwise subject to the approval of the Board.

A Director shall not vote on any contract or arrangement or on any other proposed board resolution in which he/she or through any of his/her associates (as defined in the GEM Listing Rules of Hong Kong Stock Exchange) has material interests; nor shall he/she be counted in the quorum of the corresponding Board meeting.

Unless the interested Director, supervisor, general manager, deputy general manager and other senior management member discloses his/her interests in accordance with the preceding paragraph of this Article and the contract, transaction or arrangement is approved by the Board at a meeting in which the interested Director, supervisor, general manager, deputy general manager and other senior management member is not counted in the quorum and refrains from voting, a contract, transaction or arrangement in which that Director, supervisor, general manager, deputy general manager and other senior management member is materially interested is voidable at the instance of the Company except as against a bona fide party thereto acting without notice of the breach of duty by the interested Director, general manager, deputy general manager and other senior management member.

A Director, supervisor, general manager, deputy general manager and other senior management member of the Company is deemed to be interested in a contract, transaction or arrangement in which an associate of him/her is interested.

Article 133 Mandatory Provisions Article 120
Where a Director, supervisor, general manager, deputy general manager and other senior management member of the Company gives to the Board a general notice in writing stating that, by reason of the facts specified in the notice, he/she is interested in contracts, transactions or arrangements of any description which may subsequently be made by the Company, such notice shall be deemed for the purposes of the preceding paragraph of this Article to be a sufficient declaration of his/her interests, so far as the content stated in such notice is concerned, provided that such general notice shall have been given before the date on which the question of entering into the relevant contract, transaction or arrangement is first taken into consideration on behalf of the Company.

Article 134 Mandatory Provisions Article 121
The Company shall not in any manner pay taxes for or on behalf of its Directors, supervisors, general manager, deputy general manager and other senior management members.

Mandatory Provisions Article 122

Article 135

The Company shall not directly or indirectly make a loan to, or provide any guarantee in connection with, the making of a loan to a Director, supervisor, general manager, deputy general manager and other senior management member of the Company or of the Company's parent company or any of their respective associates.

However, the following circumstances are not subject to the preceding paragraph:

- (1) the provision by the Company of a loan or a guarantee for a loan to a company which is a subsidiary of the Company;
- (2) the provision by the Company of a loan or a guarantee in connection with the making of a loan or any other funds to any of its Directors, supervisors, general manager, deputy general manager and other senior management members to meet expenditure incurred or to be incurred by him/her for the purposes of the Company or for the purpose of enabling him/her to perform his/her duties properly, in accordance with the terms of a service contract approved by the shareholders in general meeting;
- (3) the Company may make a loan or provide a guarantee in connection with the making of a loan to any of the relevant Directors, supervisors, general manager, deputy general manager and other senior management members or their respective associates in the ordinary course of its business on normal commercial terms, provided that the ordinary course of business of the Company includes the lending of money or the provision of guarantees.

Article 136

A loan made by the Company in breach of the above provisions shall be forthwith repayable by the recipient of the loan regardless of the terms of the loan.

Mandatory Provisions Article 124

Article 137

A loan guarantee provided by the Company in breach of clause 1 of Article 135 shall be unenforceable against the Company, provided that:

- (1) a loan guarantee was advanced to an associate of any of the Directors, supervisors, general manager, deputy general manager and other senior management members of the Company or of the Company's parent company where the lender did not know the relevant circumstances;
- (2) the collateral provided by the Company has been lawfully disposed of by the lender to a bona fide purchaser.

Mandatory Provisions Article 125

Article 138

For the purposes of the foregoing provisions of this Chapter, a guarantee includes an undertaking or property provided to secure the performance of obligations by the obligor.

Mandatory Provisions Article 126

Article 139

In addition to any rights and remedies provided by the laws and administrative regulations, where a Director, supervisor, general manager, deputy general manager and other senior management member of the Company is in breach of his/her duties to the Company, the Company has a right to:

- (1) claim damages from the Director, supervisor, general manager, deputy general manager and other senior management members in compensation for losses sustained by the Company as a result of such breach;
- (2) rescind any contract or transaction entered into by the Company with the Director, supervisor, general manager, deputy general manager and other senior management members or with a third party (where such third party knows or should know that there is such a breach of duties by such Director, supervisor, general manager, deputy general manager and other senior management members);
- (3) demand the Director, supervisor, general manager, deputy general manager and other senior management members to surrender the profits made by him/her in breach of his/her duties;
- (4) recover any monies received by the Director, supervisor, general manager, deputy general manager and other senior management members which should have been otherwise received by the Company, including (without limitation) commissions; and
- (5) demand payment of the interest earned or which may have been earned by the Director, supervisor, general manager, deputy general manager and other senior management members on the monies that should have been paid to the Company.

Mandatory Provisions Article 127

Article 140

The Company shall, with the prior approval of shareholders in general meeting, enter into a contract in writing with a Director or supervisor wherein his/her emoluments are stipulated, including;

- (1) emoluments in respect of his/her service as Director, supervisor or senior management member of the Company;
- (2) emoluments in respect of his/her service as Director, supervisor or senior management member of any subsidiary of the Company;
- (3) emoluments in respect of the provision of other services in connection with the management of the affairs of the Company or any of its subsidiaries;
- (4) compensation for loss of office, or as consideration for or in connection with his/her retirement from office.

except under a contract entered into in accordance with the foregoing, no proceedings may be brought by a Director or supervisor against the Company for any benefits in respect of the matters mentioned in this Article.

Article 141

The contract for emoluments entered into between the Company and its Directors and supervisors should provide that in the event of a takeover of the Company, the Company's Directors and supervisors shall, subject to the prior approval of the shareholders in general meeting, have the right to receive compensation or other payment for loss of office or retirement. A takeover of the Company as mentioned in above means refers to:

- (1) a takeover offer made by any person to all shareholders;
- (2) a takeover offer made by any person with a view to the offeror becoming a “controlling shareholder” within the meaning of Article 56.

If the relevant Director or supervisor does not comply with this Article, any sum so received by him/her shall belong to those persons who have sold their shares as a result of the said offer made. The expenses incurred in distributing that sum pro rata amongst those persons shall be borne by the relevant Director or supervisor and shall not be paid out of that sum.

Mandatory Provisions Article 129

Mandatory Provisions Article 130

Article 143 At the end of each accounting year, the Company shall prepare a financial report which shall be audited in compliance with the laws.

The financial report of the Company shall include the following financial statements and breakdown analysis:

- (1) Balance sheet;
- (2) Profit and loss account;
- (3) Statement of changes in financial position;
- (4) Description of the financial situation;
- (5) Statement of profit distribution.

Mandatory Provisions Article 131

Article 144 The Board shall place before the shareholders at every annual general meeting such financial reports as are required by any laws, administrative regulations or directives promulgated by local governmental and competent authorities to be prepared by the Company.

Mandatory Provisions Article 132

Article 145 The Company’s financial reports shall be made available for shareholders’ inspection at the Company twenty (20) days before the date of every annual general meeting. Each shareholder shall be entitled to obtain a copy of the financial reports referred to in this Chapter.

The Company shall at least deliver or send to each shareholder of overseas listed foreign-invested shares by prepaid mail the abovementioned reports (including the printed copy of the report of the Directors) no later than twenty-one (21) days before the date of every annual general meeting. The address of the recipient shall be the address registered in the share register.

- Article 146 Mandatory Provisions Article 133
The financial statements of the Company shall, in addition to being prepared in accordance with PRC accounting standards and regulations, be prepared in accordance with either international accounting standards or that of the overseas place where the Company's shares are listed. If there is any material difference between the financial statements prepared respectively in accordance with the two accounting standards, explanations shall be made in the financial statements. When the Company is to distribute its after-tax profits of the relevant accounting year, the lower of the after-tax profits as shown in the two financial statements shall be adopted.
- Article 147 Mandatory Provisions Article 134
The interim and quarterly results or financial information published or disclosed by the Company shall be prepared in accordance with PRC Accounting Standards and regulations as well as the international accounting standards or that of the overseas listing place.
- Article 148 Mandatory Provisions Article 135
The Company shall release four (4) financial reports for each accounting year, namely three interim financial reports within 45 days after the end of the first three, six and nine months of each accounting year and an annual financial report within 120 days after the end of each accounting year.
- Article 149 Mandatory Provisions Article 136
The Company shall not keep accounting records other than those provided by law.
- Article 150 Mandatory Provisions Article 137
The Company shall implement an internal audit system, and shall establish internal audit department or retain internal auditors to conduct internal audit of its income and expenditure and economic activities under the leadership of the Board.
- Article 151 Profit after taxation of the Company is allocated in the following order:
- (1) to offset losses;
 - (2) to provide for statutory surplus reserve fund;
 - (3) to provide for discretionary surplus reserve fund;

(4) to pay for dividends of ordinary shares.

Article 152 The Company's reserve fund includes surplus reserve fund and capital reserve fund. The surplus reserve fund is divided into statutory surplus reserve fund and discretionary surplus reserve fund.

Article 153 When distributing each year's after-tax profits, the Company shall set aside 10 per cent (10%) of its after-tax profits for the Company's statutory surplus reserve fund. When the aggregate balance in the statutory surplus reserve fund has reached 50 per cent (50%) or more of the Company's registered capital, the Company needs not make any further allocations to that fund.

Where the Company's statutory surplus reserve fund is not enough to make up losses of the Company for the preceding year, the current year's profits shall be applied firstly to make up the losses before being allocated to the statutory surplus reserve fund in accordance with the preceding paragraph.

Subject to a resolution of the shareholders' general meeting, after allocation has been made to the Company's statutory surplus reserve fund from its after-tax profits, the Company may set aside funds for the discretionary surplus reserve fund.

The remaining profit after tax, after recovery of losses and appropriation of reserve fund, shall be distributed to shareholders in proportion to their shareholdings.

If a shareholders' general meeting or the Board violates the provisions in the preceding paragraph of this Article and distributes profits to the shareholders before the Company makes up losses or makes allocations to the statutory surplus reserve fund, the profits distributed in violation of the provisions must be returned to the Company.

Article 154 Capital reserve fund includes the following items:

- (1) premium received when shares are issued at a premium to their par value;
- (2) any other income required to be included in the capital common reserve fund by the governing finance department of the State Council.

Mandatory Provisions Article 138

Article 155 The reserve funds of the Company can only be used for the following purposes:

- (1) making up losses;
- (2) expansion of the Company's production and operation or contribution to the capital of the Company

The Company may convert its reserve fund into capital upon a resolution adopted in shareholders' general meeting and issue new shares to existing shareholders in proportion to their respective shareholdings, provided, however, that when the statutory surplus reserve fund is converted into capital, the balance of the statutory reserve fund shall not fall below twenty-five percentage (25%) of the Company's registered capital;

Article 156 Dividends shall be distributed in proportion to the shareholdings of the shareholders within six (6) months after the end of each accounting year.

Unless otherwise determined by the shareholders' meeting, the shareholders' meeting may authorize the Board to distribute interim dividend. Unless otherwise prescribed by the laws and regulations, the amount of interim dividend shall not exceed fifty percentage

(50%) of the profit available for distribution in the interim income statement of the Company.

Article 157 The Company may distribute dividends in the following manner.

- (1) in cash;
- (2) by shares.

Mandatory Provisions Article 139

Article 158 The Company shall calculate, declare and pay dividends and other amounts which are payable to holders of domestic shares in Renminbi within 3 months after the date on which the dividend is declared. The Company shall calculate and declare dividends and other payments which are payable to holders of foreign-invested shares in Renminbi, and shall pay such amounts in foreign currency within 3 months after the date on which the dividend is declared.

The Company shall pay dividends and other amounts to holders of foreign-invested shares in accordance with the relevant foreign exchange control regulations of the State.

Article 159 The Company shall, in accordance with the tax law of the PRC, withhold and pay on behalf of shareholders the tax payable on their dividend income.

Article 160 The Company shall appoint receiving agents on behalf of the holders of overseas listed foreign-invested shares to receive on behalf of such shareholders dividends declared and all other monies owing by the Company in respect of such shares.

The receiving agents appointed by the Company shall satisfy the relevant requirements of the laws of the place and relevant regulations of the stock exchange where the Company's shares are listed.

The receiving agents appointed on behalf of holders of overseas listed foreign invested shares listed on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange shall be a company registered as a trust company under the Trustee Ordinance of Hong Kong.

Mandatory Provisions Article 140

Chapter 16 Appointment of accountants' firm

Article 161 The Company shall appoint an independent firm of certified public accountants which is qualified under the relevant regulations of the State to audit the Company's annual financial reports and review the Company's other financial reports.

The first certified public accountants' firm of the Company may be appointed by the inaugural meeting of the Company before the first annual general meeting of shareholders and the certified public accountants' firm so appointed shall hold office until the conclusion of the first annual general meeting.

If the inaugural meeting fails to exercise its aforesaid powers, those powers shall be exercised by the Board.

Mandatory Provisions Article 141

Mandatory Provisions Article 144

Article 165 The shareholders in general meeting may, by ordinary resolution, remove a certified public accountants' firm before the expiration of its office, notwithstanding the stipulations in the contract between the firm and the Company, but without prejudice to the firm's right to claim, if any, for damages in respect of such removal.

Mandatory Provisions Article 145

Article 166 The remuneration of a certified public accountants' firm or the manner in which such firm is to be remunerated shall be determined by the shareholders in general meeting. The remuneration of a certified public accountants' firm appointed by the Board shall be determined by the Board.

Mandatory Provisions Article 146

Article 167 The Company's appointment of, removal of and non-reappointment of a certified public accountants' firm shall be resolved by shareholders in general meeting. The resolution of the shareholders' general meeting shall be filed with the competent securities regulatory authority of the State Council.

Where it is proposed that any resolution be passed at a shareholders' general meeting concerning the appointment of a certified public accountants' firm, which is not an incumbent firm, to replace an existing accountant's firm or to fill a casual vacancy in the office of the certified public accountants' firm, or to reappoint a retiring certified public accountants' firm which was appointed by the Board to fill a casual vacancy, or to remove the certified public accountants' firm before the expiration of its term of office, the following provisions shall apply:

- (1) A copy of the proposal about appointment or removal shall be sent to the firm proposed to be appointed or proposing to leave its post or the firm which has left its post in the relevant accounting year before notice of meeting is given to the shareholders. Leaving includes leaving by removal, resignation and retirement.
- (2) If the leaving firm makes representations in writing and requests the Company to notify the shareholders of such representations, the Company shall (unless the representations are received too late):
 1. in any notice given to shareholders about a resolution to be made, state the representations that has been made by the accountants' firm which is about to leave;
 2. attach a copy of the representations to the notice and deliver it to the shareholders in the manner stipulated in the Articles of Association.
- (3) If the firm's representations are not sent in accordance with clause (2) above, the relevant firm may require that the representations be read out at the shareholders' general meeting and may lodge further complaints.
- (4) A certified public accountants' firm which is leaving its post shall be entitled to attend:
 1. the shareholders' general meeting relating to the expiry of its term of office;
 2. any shareholders' general meeting at which it is proposed to fill the vacancy caused by its removal;
 3. any shareholders' general meeting convened on its resignation;

and to receive all notices of, and other communications relating to, any such meetings, and to speak at any such meeting in relation to matters concerning its role as the former certified public accountants' firm of the Company.

Mandatory Provisions Article 147

Article 168

Prior to the removal or the non-renewal of the appointment of a certified public accountants' firm, notice of such removal or non-renewal shall be given to the certified public accountants' firm concerned and such firm shall be entitled to make representation at the shareholders' general meeting. Where the certified public accountants' firm resigns from its post, it shall make clear to the shareholders' general meeting whether there has been any impropriety on the part of the Company.

Any certified public accountants' firm may resign from its office by depositing at the Company's legal domicile a resignation notice which shall become effective on the date of such deposit or on such later date as may be stipulated in such notice. Such notice shall include the following:

- (1) a statement to the effect that there are no circumstances connected with its resignation which it considers should be brought to the notice of the shareholders or creditors of the Company;
- (2) a statement of any matters of which an account should be given.

Where a notice is deposited under the preceding paragraph, the Company shall within fourteen (14) days send a copy of notice to the competent authority. If the notice contains a statement referred to in clause (2) above, a copy of such statement shall be placed at the Company for shareholders' inspection. The Company shall also send a copy of such statement to every holder overseas listed foreign invested shares and every shareholder having the right to obtain the financial status of the Company.

Where the notice of resignation of a certified public accountants' firm contains a statement of any matters of which an account should be given, the certified public accountants' firm may require the Board to convene a special general meeting for the purpose of giving an explanation of the circumstances connected with its resignation.
